

6th MAYS annual conference

Medical Anthropology Young Scholars
A network of the European Association of Social Anthropologists
www.mays-easa.org

Thursday, June 11 th 2015
9:00-9:45	Registration and opening of the conference			Venue: UB Amsterdam, Singel 425, Doelenzaal
9:45-10:30	Key note lecture by Prof. Ria Reis			Venue: UB Amsterdam, Singel 425, Doelenzaal
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
	Group A Oude Manhuispoort 4-6 1012CN Amsterdam Room A 1.18 C	Group B Oude Manhuispoort 4-6 1012CN Amsterdam Room A 1.18 D	Group C Oude Manhuispoort 4-6 1012CN Amsterdam Room A 2.01	Group D Oude Manhuispoort 4-6 1012CN Amsterdam Room A 2.08
11:00-11:30	Annelieke Driessen, University of Amsterdam: E-motion: being moved by movement on the dementia ward	Laura Vermeulen, University of Amsterdam: "It's losing the person I knew": 'Emotions' and remaking life in the context of dementia care support therapeutics in England'	Silke Hoppe, University of Amsterdam: Negotiating emotions in early-onset dementia	Jennifer J. Infanti, Norwegian University of Science and Technology: The emotional dynamics of expectations and promises in global health research
11:30-12:00	Lisa Strandroos, Linköping University: Meaning making at a dementia care facility: different understandings and concerns	Emmaly Berghuis, VU University: Pained expressions: exploring emotions of migrant women with chronic pain	Tania Kossberg, University of Cambridge: Emotions in Family Therapy in Northern Norway	Marcos Andrade Neves, UFRGS / FU Berlin: Mobilizing Emotions: The notion of "cases" in assisted suicide and voluntary euthanasia demands.
12:00-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:00	Froukje Pelleboer, KU Leuven: Emotions of suffering in women in West Papua	Maria C. Lo Bosco, University of Lisbon: Sensing the field and giving sense to emotions, narratives between a medical anthropologist and autistics' family caregivers	Florin Cristea, National School of Political Science and Public Administration, Romania: Desirable Emotions. Negotiating Personhood in a Psychosocial Integration Center in Romania	Natashe Lemos Dekker, University of Amsterdam: "Future suffering is also suffering" Euthanasia and Dementia in the Netherland
14:00-14:30	Jyoti Gupta, University of Delhi, India: Enacting the experiences-advertisements based on patients' narratives	Ben Belek, Cambridge University, UK: I feel therefore I matter: Emotional rhetoric in the context of autism self-advocacy online	Eva Cynkar, University of Cologne: Cultural Models and (Ab-/Normal) Emotions: A Cognitive-Anthropological View	Andrea Buhl, University of Basel: Researching End of Life - Everyday Emotions
14:30-15:00	Coffee break
15:00-16:30	Workshop I: Publishing with Prof. Niko Besnier			Venue: Oude Manhuispoort 4-6, 1012CN Amsterdam, Room A 2.01
18:30	Joint Dinner			Venue: Eetcafé t'Pakhuis, Voetboogstraat 10-12, Amsterdam

Friday, June 12th 2015

	Group A	Group B	Group C	Group D
9:30-10:00	Ursula Probst, Freie Universität Berlin : "But how do you deal with it?" - Emotions in Sex Work (Research)	Sara Seerup Laursen, University of Southern Denmark : The meaning of pain. Processes of meaning making at a pain clinic for youngsters with medically unexplained pain	Kristin Engh Førde, University of Oslo : Accommodating "the Medical Baby". Experiences of Gestational Surrogacy pregnancy in Mumbai, India	Julien Grard, École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales, Paris and - Équipe MARSS : Death, emotions, fieldwork
10:00-10:30	Stine Grinna, University of Amsterdam : Intimately depending: exploring practices of navigating and negotiating relationships with clients among people who sell sex in Cape Town	Francesca De Luca, Universidade de Lisboa : Uma hora pequenina! Childbirth pains, Lisbon and the biomedical parabola	Emilia Perujo, Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México : The bodily presence of absence: Negotiating emotions along anthropological fieldwork	Beatriz Aragon Martin, Max Planck institute for the study of ethnic and religious diversity and University College London : Doing fieldwork at home: emotions and reflections
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-11:30	Giulia Sciolli, University College London : "Feelings kill; feelings heal": Working on Emotions in Eating Disorders Treatment	Tanja Ahlin, Amsterdam Institute for Social Science Research : Information and communication technology (ICT) and tension management in elderly care in Indian transnational families	Lex Kuiper, Amsterdam Institute for Social Science Research : Methadone and time: on (the absence of) hope in the forever-now	Samuele Collu, UC Berkeley – UC SF : From reflexive modes to refractive moods: being affected behind a one-way mirror
11:30-12:00		Anna Fox, University of Vienna : "Post-traumatic negotiating. Emotions in doctor-patient communication during processes of facial reconstruction."	Tereza Mazáková, Charles University in Prague : Emotional buprenorphine network	Marion Linska, University of Vienna : Personal Field-Reflection or how to integrate emotions as an analytical tool in qualitative research Institution
12:00-13:30	Lunch
13:30-16:30	Workshop II: The Researcher's Affects Venue: Oude Manhuispoort 4-6, 1012CN Amsterdam, Room A 2.01
	13:30-14:00	Lecture "The emotional economies of fieldwork and ethnography" by Thomas Stodulka, PhD, FU Berlin
	14:-15:00	Empirical Affect Montage, Workshop with Samia Dinkelaker M.A. and Ferdiansyah Thajib M.A., FU Berlin
	15:00-15:30	coffee break
	15:30-16:30	Empirical Affect Montage, workshop continued
16:30-17:00	Evaluation of the conference
18:30	Joint farewell dinner (optional)			